

Notice of Privacy Practices

Our commitment to your privacy: Terry Rudd, ND, LAc is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your health information. We are required by law to maintain the confidentiality of your health information.

We will NOT disclose your health information without your authorization except in the following situations:

1. We will use and disclose your health information while providing, coordinating or managing your healthcare needs. An example of this would be an exam by an Acupuncturist of related services by other healthcare professionals.
2. We will use and disclose your medical information for your reimbursement from your health plan.
3. We will use and disclose your medical information for the administrative aspects of your healthcare inside our practice, to manage our business more efficiently. An example would be an internal quality assessment.
4. In some cases, we may need to disclose your health information to our business associates so they can perform the job we have asked them to do.
5. We may disclose to a family member, personal friend, or any other person you identify health information relevant to your case.
6. To public health authorities and health-oversight agencies which are authorized by law to collect information.
7. Lawsuits and similar proceedings in response to a court or administrative order.
8. If required to do so by law-enforcement official.
9. When necessary to reduce or prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or to the health and safety of another individual or the public. We will only make disclosures to a person or organization able to help prevent the threat.
10. If you are a member of U.S. or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate authorities.
11. To federal officials for intelligence and national security activities authorized by law.
12. To correctional institutions or law-enforcement officials, if you are an inmate or under the custody of a law-enforcement official.
13. For Worker's Compensation and similar programs.

Your rights regarding your health information:

1. You can request that our practice communicate with you about your health and related issues in a particular manner, or at a certain location. For instance, you may ask that we contact you at home, rather than at work. We accommodate reasonable requests.
2. You have the right to request restrictions of certain uses and disclosures of protected health information, including those related to disclosures to family members, other relatives, personal friends, or another person identified by you. We are not required to agree to your request; however, if we do agree, we are bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies, or when the information is necessary to treat you.
3. You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of the health information that may be used to make decisions about you, including patient medical records and billing records. You must submit your request in writing to Terry Rudd, ND, LAc.
4. You must ask to amend your health information if you believe it is incorrect or incomplete, and as long as the information is kept by our practice. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing to Terry Rudd, ND, LAc. You must provide us with a reason that supports your request for amendment.
5. You are entitled to receive a copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices. You may ask us to give you a copy of this Notice at any time by contacting Terry Rudd, ND, LAc.
6. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with Terry Rudd, ND, LAc or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services at www.hhs.gov/ocr.
